New surveyor licenses support company growth

Flint, Michigan, Aug. 19, 2009 – As ROWE builds upon its 47 years of professional service to Michigan communities, survey staff are furthering their education to support expanding needs.

Jon Rick, PS, has earned his Bureau of Land Management Federal Surveyors certification and is now qualified to provide boundary services in Michigan for American Indian landowners, tribes and federal agencies administrating land adjoining American Indian property.

Rick is a surveyor in ROWE's Mt. Pleasant office, where he is responsible for setting up and processing conventional and GPS data. He is a resident of Mt. Pleasant.

John Rauser, PS, has earned a Wisconsin Professional Surveyors license. He is also licensed in Michigan.

Rauser is responsible for coordinating field crews and office personnel in ROWE's Mt. Pleasant and Grayling offices. He is a resident of Harrison.

Jim Fink, PLS, has earned his Colorado Professional Land Surveyors license. He is a level III certified survey technician.

Fink is a survey project coordinator who is responsible for survey and project GPS coordination and supervision. He is a resident of Durand and works in ROWE's corporate office in Flint.

ROWE's headquarters is in Flint, MI; additional offices are located in Lapeer, Mt. Pleasant, Grayling, and the tri-cities area in MI, and Myrtle Beach, SC.

ROWE Professional Services Company is a full service professional consulting firm specializing in civil engineering, surveying, aerial photography/mapping, landscape architecture, planning and land development services.
